

THE ROYAL
YACHT CLUB
OF TASMANIA

MEDIA KIT 2017

The Tasmanian Yachtsman

Our in-house seasonally produced glossy boating lifestyle magazine.

Aided by one of Australia's foremost experts on sailing and yachting Editor-at-Large – Sailing Mr Peter Campbell – with Peter recently receiving the highest of honours an OAM for his lifetime of journalistic contribution to the promotion of the sport of sailing.

The official journal of the Royal Yacht Club of Tasmania, the largest yacht club in the Australian state of Tasmania, best known worldwide for its role as the finishing destination for the annual Rolex Sydney to Hobart Yacht Race. The club sports a range of facilities, from a 220-berth marina to on-site maintenance facilities and more than 2000 members.

Formerly known as the Derwent Sailing Boat Club, for its location on the Derwent River in Hobart, the Club was founded in 1880. It was called such for thirty years until, in 1910, King Edward VII granted the organisation permission to use the prefix "Royal".

Lifelong members of RYCT commit themselves wholeheartedly, demonstrating time and time again they are service and leisure-minded loyal members bent on supporting the growth, development and the leadership of the sport of sailing, their club and fellow members.

The Yachtsman is currently welcomed by approximately 1200 households of RYCT Members with an estimated readership of over 20,000 people annually, with digital versions available on the RYCT website and further copies available for purchase through the RYCT office.

With an identified need for growth, readers and advertisers alike are delighted by the redesigned TY. Moreover, the increase in the print run provides expanded opportunity for members to access additional copies for their friends, promotional use at Boat Shows, Regattas and industry expos and most importantly businesses advertising within the magazine can now be provided with additional copies for their clients complimentary.

We would love to have you come on board as an advertiser. If you are interested we would be delighted to send the 2017 advertising rates and specifications and are happy to discuss how we can assist you in your advertising strategies.

ADVERTISING TERMS & CONDITIONS

- FIRST TIME ADVERTISERS MUST ESTABLISH CREDIT FOR FUTURE ADVERTISING AND SUBMIT PAYMENT OF 100%. Prepayment is required for all non-credit approved advertisers.
- Accounts become due on proof of insertion and in all cases must be paid within 30 days.
- Colour screens will be matched to the best of the publisher's ability. Due to printing and ink variances, we cannot guarantee exact colour matches. No rebate will be made in the event of colour variations.
- The publisher, The Royal Yacht Club of Tasmania, does not take responsibility for "show through" on advertisements.
- Advertising insertion orders are accepted subject to the condition that the publisher shall have no liability for the failure to execute such advertising because of government restrictions, fires, strikes, accidents, acts of God or any other event beyond the publisher's control.
- If, in the publisher's opinion, an advertisement looks like editorial material, the publisher may publish the advertisement under the heading 'Advertising', with a border distinguishing it from nearby editorial and in typefaces that differ from nearby editorial.
- The advertiser must not submit advertising for publication that contains contact details for the advertiser if those contact details do not include the full name and street address of the advertiser. Post office box and email addresses alone are insufficient.
- The publisher does not accept responsibility for any errors in advertising placed over the telephone.
- The publisher reserves the right to reject any advertising that is not in keeping with publication standards. All orders are accepted on the terms and conditions outlined above.
- The printed and written provisions of this contract contain all the agreements between either party and the publisher is not responsible for any oral representations unless incorporated herein. If the advertiser is a corporation, then the individual signing this contract shall be jointly and severally liable with the advertiser for the payment provided herein. In the event of non-payment, all costs of collection and legal fees shall be borne by the advertiser and the individual guarantor. This contract cannot be cancelled without the written consent of the publisher.
- The Tasmanian Yachtsman will provide proofs of new advertisements that require production by The Tasmanian Yachtsman. Charges for an advertiser's alterations will be made if changes are made altering the original copy or graphics following submission of the first proof. Material produced by The Tasmanian Yachtsman will become property of the publisher. Should the advertiser wish to utilise The Tasmanian Yachtsman advertisement for use in other publications, a release fee will be charged and the material cannot be released until the publication of The Tasmanian Yachtsman issue for the month in which the advertisement is first booked.

CANCELLATION OF SPACE & COPY REGULATIONS

Cancellation of space after space reservation deadline is not accepted. If an advertiser does not meet copy deadline, the publisher may insert a previous advertisement, or if there was no previous advertisement, the publisher might prepare and insert an advertisement without prior approval of copy or layout by the advertiser. Acceptance of advertising is subject to publisher's approval and agreement by the advertiser to indemnify and protect the publisher from loss or expense from claims or suits based upon contents or the subject matter of such advertisements. Including suits for plagiarism, copyright infringement and unauthorised use of a person's name or photograph. The publisher reserves the right to cancel any advertiser's contract if payments are not received on a consistent basis or in the event of non-payment.
